

ANTI-BULLYING RAP

Got a rap to say about discrimination
And I want to share it with the entire nation.

Once upon a time not long ago
There was a big bad bully and he had a bro.
Their names were Ben and Little Joe.

Every day they bullied making children look like fools.
Soon they were hated by the entire school.

The teachers got involved and thought them a lesson,
That kindness and love brings more blessings.

Respecting what others think and do
Will bring them love and happiness too.
